Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

Weekly Activities and Status Report - 13 April 1983

CIPC Organizational Activities

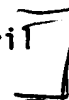

- DDCI approved CIPC DCID, effective 6 April 1983.
- FBI added to the Committee.
 - Conferred with Ed O'Malley's office--he was out of town--and advised them of the 18 April meeting; also sent him meeting material referenced below.
 - Also conferred with Jay Oldhizer, FBI POC; he requested permission for O'Malley to bring a back-up knowledgeable of Narcotics problem. Concurred, with basic ground rules understood.
- Provided members the following material preparatory for the CIPC meeting:
 - Preliminary Agenda.
 - TOR on Narcotics Intelligence.

25X1

Note: These TORs will be finalized on the 18th in order to provide the respective Working Groups definitive tasking.

- We held our pre-meeting at 1300 on 12 April to review with the Working Group Chairmen and principal staff officers various aspects and details of the TORs.
 - They are prepared to review/address the TORs with the CIPC principals.
 - As a result of our pre-meeting the CIPC agenda for the 18 April meeting has been finalized--see attached.

25X1

The CIPC minutes are apparently being read and are in demand.

Received three calls so far this week re substantive items; and

- A call from CIA/DDI/CRES requesting that they be put on distribution--request denied; however, made arrangements for Executive Registry to provide them a copy. Also, CRES requested to be put on distribution for Narcotics Working Group minutes, announcements of meetings, etc.--request approved.
